

Attention & Behavior Management Program for Families

Promote your child's social, emotional, & academic competence

Develop positive management strategies that help enhance the quality of family relationships & parent-child interactions

Youth learn coping & problem-solving skills that help promote self-regulation & conflict resolution.

7-week program consisting of weekly 90-minute sessions

Facilitated by Clinical Psychologists trained in behavior management & parent training intervention

Join Anytime!

For more information:

* Contact Gina at (949) 654-2424 or email us at info@C4L.net